

DESIGNER PRESENTATION

By Jade F.

Mike Perry

The Artist...

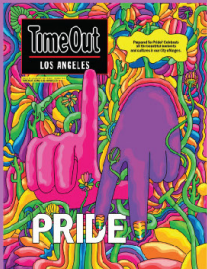

Mike Perry is an American artist known for his work in forms such as illustration and animation.

After graduating from the Minneapolis College of Art and Design with a degree in Graphic Design; Mike Perry had found a job within the main digital media and catalog design department for the retail corporation Urban Outfitters.

However, In 2004 Mike Perry moved to Brooklyn New York and later established a design studio in 2006. While in New York, Perry had obtained a wide network of commercial clients such as, Apple, Nike, The New York Times, eMusic, and Target.

Art style....

Mike Perry's art style displays a combination of hand-drawn doodles alongside bright and vibrant colors. Perry's works often tend to explore the aspects of patterns and typography.

Most Popular...

One of Mike Perry's most notable pieces is the works he did for the American Sitcom 'Broad City' on Comedy Central. For the show, Perry provided animations and illustrations for the title sequence of each episode

Other Works....

online portfolio:
<https://www.mikeperrystudio.com/everything/>