

I chose to change the colors with a brighter green and teal because it makes the logo to appear more fresh and sophisticated.

I think it stills very attractive since the color green evokes wellbeing and it ensures that people will trust the quality of the product.

