

GENESIS

CHAPTER 1

God's Work of Creation

1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said, Let there be light, and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, and herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree bearing fruit after his kind, whose seed shall be in itself upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree bearing fruit after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let the lights be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

16 And God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: and the stars also.

17 And God set the sun in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth: and to rule over the day, and to divide the day from the night; and to give light upon the earth: and God saw that it was good.

18 And to rule over the day, and to divide the day from the night; and to give light upon the earth: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and the winged creature that hath life: and God created the great whales, and every living creature that creepeth upon the earth, and every winged creature that flieth above the earth: and God saw that it was good.

after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas; and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping things, and fowl of the earth after his kind; and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living creature that moveth upon the earth.

29 And God said unto them, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree in the field which beareth fruit, it shall be for meat unto you.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, which hath life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

32 And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden

1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of heaven.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had finished from all his work which God created to do.

4 Thus are the generations of the heavens and of the earth, which they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heaven.

5 In the sixth day of the world before the flood, the LORD God had made man to till the ground, and to keep the garden of Eden, which he had planted in the east of the garden of Eden.

6 And the LORD God said, It is not good that I should leave thee alone: I will make thee an help meet unto thee.

THEN

IT HE

BLEW

THE BREATH

OF LIFE,

AND MAN

BECAME A LIVING SOUL.
