

My favorite logo of all time is the Coca-Cola logo. I love it...always have...it's a classic. (Maybe it's because I LOVE COKE!!!). But in all seriousness, I think the red and white really makes the logo pop and, additionally, I like the font choices – from the very first logo to the present day logo. I find that I have a hard time selecting fonts when I'm trying to make something visually appealing and I find that, with each different Coke logo, I find the font to be appealing. Although red is not my favorite color – it's fine; I'm a bit impartial to it – it must make some sort of an impact and be relatively popular across the board considering some of the most common and well-known brands use red in their logos.
