

4) Go to a room or a place in which you spend most of your time—or would like to spend more time. Do a color chart that accurately renders the range of colors and color relationships found in that place. Refinement: render your color chart so that the relative proportion of various colors is accurately depicted.

I imagine my dream bedroom which I would like to spend more time in with the following color palette:

Color Proportion:

Variation: Go somewhere you feel extremely uncomfortable. Do the same exercise.

I imagine I feel extremely uncomfortable in a dark, humid basement with mold:

Color Proportion:

Further variation: take an object from one environment and paint it with the colors of the other environment.

I take the brown leather soft chair from the dark basement and change it into blush pink linen cover, taken from one of the cushions of my dream bedroom, and wooden chair legs taken from the wooden bedframe from the bedroom.
