Who are we?

Founded in 1994 by two Stanford PhD candidates, Jerry Yang and David Filo, Yahoo was the original guide to the Internet, connecting users with their passions and helping them to discover the mystery and promise of the World Wide Web. Rooted in that beginning we continue to be a guide to digital information, informing, connecting and entertaining our users with search, communications, and digital content products.

A top-down view of a desk setup. A silver laptop is open, showing its keyboard and trackpad. To the left of the laptop, a pair of glasses and a pen are visible. A card with a sunset image and the text "STAY SIMPLE" is placed on the desk. A purple semi-transparent box is overlaid on the bottom half of the image, containing white text.

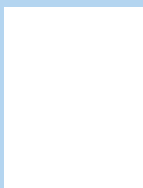

Yahoo is a guide to digital information discovery, focused on informing, connecting, and entertaining through its search, communications, and digital content products.
