

FOOL'S GOLD

A large, circular vault door is open, revealing a massive pile of gold coins inside. The coins are stacked high, filling the center of the vault. The vault door is made of dark metal with a grid of rivets. The interior of the vault is a bright, golden-yellow color. The title "FOOL'S GOLD" is written in a large, white, serif font across the top of the vault door.

"I constantly pack my pockets full of worthless trinkets, and in such misguided gorging I leave my heart empty and my soul emaciated because I have forgotten everything but trinkets."
